FIRST WEEK OF THE US OPEN

SEE THE US OPEN FROM THE BEST SEATS IN THE HOUSE

The USTA President's Suite is without doubt the nicest place to watch all of the tennis action at the U.S. Open.

On any given day, the guest list is a veritable who's who of business leaders, powerful influencers and celebrities like Billie Jean King, Martina Navratilova, Alec Baldwin, Anna Wintour, James Blake, David Dinkins, Dustin Hoffman, Bill Clinton, Katie Couric... The business networking opportunities are off the charts.

Watching the U.S. Open from the President's Suite is like watching the action from the comfort of your living room if you had Michelin star cuisine, concierge service and the very best seats — the box is located on the north end of the court at Arthur Ashe Stadium (the television perspective). What's more, you can't buy a ticket to the President's Suite. Access is by invitation only.

Seattle Tennis and Education Foundation is proud to offer one pair of these very exclusive invitations to the U.S. Open President's Box for you. Your donation benefits the work STEF does to bring tennis and mentorship to under-resourced youth in Seattle.
